WHOOPIING COUGH—APPEARANCE UPON THE PUBLIC STREETS OF THOSE SUFFERING FROM—REGULATION OF COMMISSIONERS ADOPTED JUNE 7, 1912.

Ordered, That the regulations promulgated by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia on April 5, 1907, for the prevention of the spread of scarlet fever, diphtheria, measles, whooping cough, chickenpox, epidemic cerebrospinal meningitis, and typhoid fever are hereby amended by inserting after the proviso appended to section 2 the words "and if the patient be under 18 years of age, not unless accompanied by an attendant 18 years or more of age, duly authorized and empowered by the parent or guardian of the patient to enforce the proper isolation of said patient," so that said proviso will read:

"Provided, That patients suffering from whooping cough may appear upon the public streets and may go or be carried from place to place over the public streets without special authorization from the health officer, but not at such times and places or in such manner as to expose other persons to infection, and if the patient be under 18 years of age, not unless accompanied by an attendant 18 years or more of age, duly authorized and empowered by the parent or guardian of the patient to enforce the proper isolation of said patient."

CATS—THOSE RUNNING AT LARGE TO BE IMPOUNDED AND DESTROYED—REGULATION OF COMMISSIONERS ADOPTED JUNE 11, 1912.

Ordered, That Article VIII of the police regulations be, and it is hereby, amended by adding to the end thereof another section, as follows:

SEC. 8. That hereafter the poundmaster shall seize all cats found running at large and convey the same to the pound, or other place to be designated by the commissioners, and there destroyed. Any citizen may deliver any such animal to the poundmaster, who shall destroy the same as above required.

DRAINS AND SEWERS—LEAKS AND OBSTRUCTIONS IN—ORDINANCE AMENDED JUNE 11, 1912.

Ordered, That section 10 of an ordinance to revise, consolidate, and amend the ordinances of the board of health, etc., legalized by joint resolution of Congress approved April 24, 1880, and again by the act of Congress approved August 7, 1894, and under authority of the act of Congress approved February 28, 1899, is hereby amended as follows:

By striking out section 10 and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

SEC. 10. Neither the owner nor occupant of any lot, building, or other structure in the District of Columbia shall allow any drainpipe, soil pipe, fixture, or passage of any description, for the drainage of said lot, building, or structure, or of any part thereof, into any public sewer, or into any sewage-disposal system, public or private, to leak and to permit the escape of its contents or any part thereof elsewhere than into the public sewer or into the sewage-disposal system with which said drainpipe, soil pipe, fixture, or passage is connected. Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not more than $40 for each offense.

SEC. 10a. Neither the owner nor occupant of any lot, building, or other structure in the District of Columbia shall permit any drainpipe, soil pipe, fixture, or passage of any description for the drainage of said lot, building, or structure, or of any part thereof, into the public sewer or into any sewage-disposal system, public or private, to become obstructed or to remain obstructed so as to prevent the free passage of all drainage entering it into the public sewer or into the sewage-disposal system with which said drainpipe, soil pipe, fixture, or passage is connected. Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not more than $40 for each offense.
